

Conference Notice (ICDSS 2025)

The 2nd International Conference of Deep Space Sciences

1. Introduction

Deep space exploration has become the common focus of the international scientific community, and countries around the world have proposed ambitious deep space exploration missions and plans. As an active and important participant in this field, China plans to carry out a series of deep space exploration missions in the next 10 to 15 years, which will not only promote the development of science but also strengthen international cooperation and exchanges.

In this context, the first International Conference of Deep Space Sciences (ICDSS 2023) was successfully held in Hefei from 22 to 27 April 2023. It attracted attendees from around the globe, exchanging thoughts, ideas, and findings in deep space sciences. The 2nd International Conference of Deep Space Sciences (ICDSS 2025) will cover a wide range of scientific and technological topics in space and planetary sciences. We sincerely invite scientists worldwide to participate in the ICDSS 2025 and propel deep space exploration for mankind together.

ICDSS 2025 will be held from 7 April to 11 April 2025 at the Steigenberger Icons, Sunac Resort Hefei. Please register and submit your abstracts at the official website: <https://planet.ustc.edu.cn/icdss2025>. We look forward to your participation.
